

Hi, I have taken my time to write and urge the FCC to totally reject the petition 04-160 made by the NAB. I have been with Satellite radio since the beginning and it is growing with services like instant traffic and weather reports to make my drive easier and safer. The NAB should look at new ways to support its own various audiences and not attack the competition through senseless legal battles.

-J. Alan Lightsey